

World Geography and History (Africa and Seventeenth Century)

Across

- 2. _____ was a Notable scientists of this era include the astronomer
- 4. In 1608 German-Dutch spectacle-maker _____ invents the first refracting telescope.
- 9. What are the two of the main oil producers in Africa
- 10. Mar 24, 1603. Queen Elizabeth I dies and James VI of _____ of what country becomes king of England.
- 11. The 17th century helped to pave the way for what Revolution

- 12. Major changes in the fields of _____ and science took place during the 17th century.
  - 14. The population growth is responsible for the nature and natural resources of africa.
  - 15. what is one of Africa's large quantity of natural resources,
- Down
- 1. Africa remains a key territory on the _____ map
  - 3. What part of Africa is considered one of Africa's most beautiful nations

- 5. What century represents a major turning point in the history of science.
- 6. What was reintroduced in currency of Europe.
- 7. In the 17th century what country was primitive and nearly vacant.
- 8. In terms of natural resources, Africa is the world's _____ continent.
- 13. France's King _____ IV converted from Protestantism to Roman Catholicism.