

World Ocean

Across

3. a person whose job is to guide boats safely on a river.

7. The area drained by a main river and other connected rivers.

8. An object that measures the temperature of certain things such as air or water.

13. Land that is not useful to people.

16. An area where grapes are grown on plants called vines.

17. A society or group of people with similar religious beliefs, customs, language and form of government.

20. A structure that blocks a flowing river and allows water to fill in behind it.

21. An area where a large number of fruit trees have been planted.

22. Place on a river where the water moves swiftly and violently.

25. to move to a different place.

26. Land created by silt deposits at the mouth of a river.

27. 1. A supply where an item such as water can be obtained. 2. Also means the starting point or beginning of a river's water.

29. Item made in large numbers for sale or trade. Migrate, to move to a different place.

30. A Channel dug by people. It is used by boats or for irrigation.

31. The half of the earth located north of the equator.

33. To move. (Water "moves" downstream in a river)

34. A lake created by people for the purpose of storing water.

35. Type of flesh-eating fish of South America that lives in fresh water.

Down

1. Stream or smaller river that flows into a larger river.

2. Ongoing movement of water such as in a river.

4. A body of moving or flowing water that follows a set path.

5. A flat wooded area that is often flooded.

6. The place where a river empties into a sea or other large body of water.

9. Cut off from the seacoast, surrounded by land.

10. Watering of crops by moving water from a well, a river, or a lake to a place where it does not rain enough to grow crops.

11. a building of sand formed by movement of flowing water.

12. Tiny pieces of soil or earth carried by the water in a river.

14. what happens when a river overflows its banks.

15. a connection system such as roads or waterways.

18. A place where water flows over the edge of a cliff.

19. The land at the edge of a river.

23. Land set aside for cows, horses or other animals to feed off the natural grasses.

24. Having a lot of moisture in the air.

28. One of the four major oceans located in the Northern Hemisphere. It is the smallest and shallowest.

32. Money charged to use a road or waterway.