

Writing

Across

1. A word that connects sentences or words
4. What is the dead giveaway that means unclear?
11. What should you use in your writing to grasp your reader?
13. You are an _____ when writing an expository composition.
16. When do you use ARMS?
17. What should you use to create a central idea?

18. What type of sentence combines two independent sentences?

Down

2. When you can hear a person in their writing it has-
3. What helps you move from sentence to sentence?
5. What are details that create images for the reader?
6. What type of sentence has 1 subject and 1 predicate?
7. What is the past tense form of 'sell'?

8. What is the first step in the writing process?

9. What type of sentence includes a complete sentence and a dependent clause?
10. Where should you elaborate on your ideas?
12. When do you use CUPS?
14. What is a compound sentence that is missing a comma?
15. What is the plural form of 'child'?

Word Bank

sensory details
vague writing
hook
compound sentence
revising

voice
expert
transitional words
prompt run on

sold body paragraphs children conjunction

simple sentence
complex sentence
brainstorm
editing