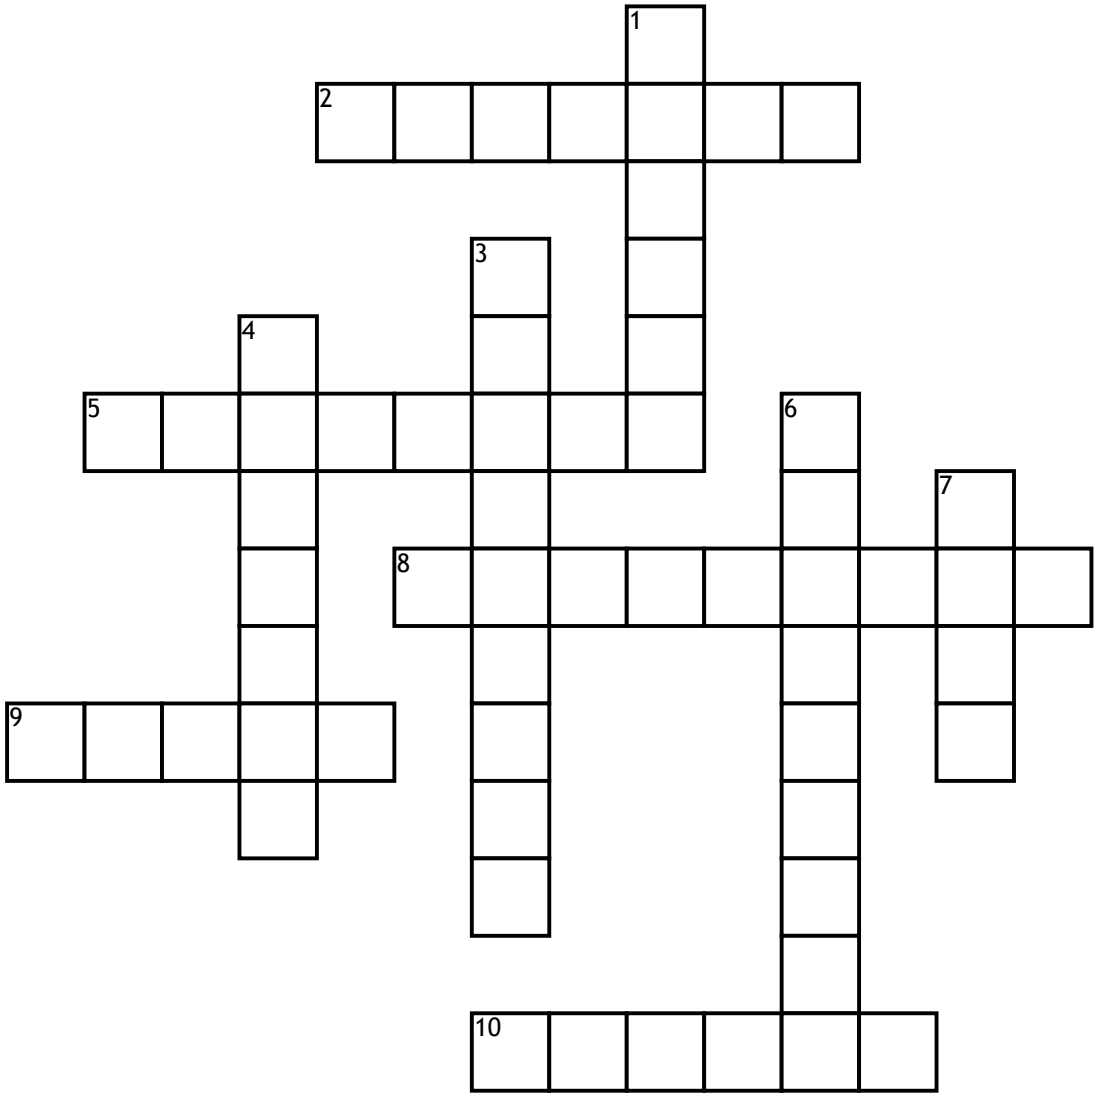
Name: _____ Date: _____

Xerophytes and Halophytes



Across

2. The _____ will close when water availability is low

5. thick to prevent water loss by evaporation

8. The stomata are on the upper _____ in plants that are halophytes

9. deep and spread to maximize the absorption of underground water.

10. Reduced in size and surface area to reduce water loss

Down

1. One example of xerophytes

3. A plant adapted to living in water

4. opened only at night to reduce the amount of water lost by transpiration.

6. A plant adapted to withstand dry environments

7. A type of halophyte is a water ____