

Yayoi Kusama Crossword

Across

- 2. A room with walls made of mirrors, filled with lights and sculptures.
- 4. Country where Yayoi was born.
- 7. 3D artwork that can be viewed from multiple angles. Yayoi made these in the form of pumpkins, imaginary flowers and more.
- 10. Last name of this famous Japanese artist.
- 12. U.S. city where Yayoi came to make her name in the art world.

- 13. Someone who makes art.

- 14. 2D artwork that is made on a canvas. Yayoi made many of these with eyes, polka dots, and bright colors.

Down

- 1. Found during fall, commonly eaten as pie or flavored coffee, Yayoi made large sculptures of them.
- 3. Japanese word for pumpkin.

- 5. Yayoi is obsessed with these; she puts them in her art, wears them on her clothes... They represent the earth, sun and infinity.

- 6. A type of painting that Yayoi made, with repeated patterns. One canvas ended up being 33 feet long!

- 8. The color of Yayoi's wig.

- 9. Using one shape or mark over and over again in the same way. It results in a pattern, like Yayoi's polka dots.

- 11. First name of this famous Japanese artist.

Word Bank

- |            |               |         |               |           |
|------------|---------------|---------|---------------|-----------|
| Red        | Kusama        | Nets    | Polka Dot     | Sculpture |
| Japan      | Painting      | Pumpkin | Artist        | Kabocha   |
| Repetition | New York City | Yayoi   | Infinity Room |           |