

Year 9 PDHPE I Love U & Me

Across

2. A person's sexual orientation or preference.
4. This type of power is based on the belief that a person has the right to make demands, and expect compliance and obedience from others.
7. This is defined as being either of the two sexes (male and female)
9. You feel that you ought to do it because it is morally right to do it.
10. This type of power is a result of a person's perceived attractiveness, worthiness, and right to respect from others.
12. This type of power is based on one person's ability to compensate another for compliance

14. This type of power is based on the belief that a person can punish others for noncompliance

Down

1. The capacity to have an effect on the character, development, or behaviour of someone or something, or the effect itself.
3. Mutual respect, trust, good communication, understanding and honesty occur in these.
5. The practice or policy of including people who might otherwise be excluded or marginalized, such as those who have physical or mental disabilities and members of minority groups.

6. This can be defined as the due regard for the feelings, wishes, or rights of others

8. The capacity of an individual to influence the behaviour of others
11. This type of power is based on a person's superior skill and knowledge.
13. Those things that one is morally or legally entitled to do or have
15. The state of being equal, especially in status, rights, or opportunities.