

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Zoology

Across

4. The study of how animals behave and what entices them to act this way.
7. An occupation that deals with wildlife and the environment they live in.
8. Ability to tell when something is wrong or is likely to go wrong. Does not involve solving the problem, but recognizing there is one.
10. A major that can be taken. This major can also be described as the production and management for farm animals.

Down

1. Restrictions or laws on what the people can do to the environment.
2. A University to attend for this occupation that resides in Michigan. This University is recognized for its area of focus for this career.
3. Part of the cluster this occupation is found in. This cluster deals with animals, agriculture, and the environment.
5. Branch of mathematics dealing with collection, analysis, and organization of data.
6. Zoologists prevent this by coordinating preventive programs to control outbreaks.
9. Knowledge of plant and animal organisms.