

Career and education terminology

Across

3. Occupation that requires specialized knowledge and often long academic training

5. Vocation, activity in which one participates

10. Money that must be repaid to lender (payments may be deferred until after completion of the degree or certification; typically comes with interest charges)

11. Money that is not repaid to the lender

13. How many students can attend a particular section

14. Degree awarded by a college or university after completion of a prescribed course of study beyond a bachelors or masters degree

15. Concerned with maintaining or improving a patients overall health in the long term

Down

1. Individuals who insure a therapeutic environment for patients

2. Money awarded to students based on merit does not require repayment

4. A student at a college or university that has not yet earned a bachelor's or equivalent degree

6. The course and number of hours required by a school and must be completed before a degree can be received

7. Money available to students to help pay for school

8. Degree awarded by a college or university after a person has completed a four-year course of study or its equivalent

9. An institution of higher education and research that awards academic degrees in various academic disciplines

12. A degree or certification of completion of learning requirements from an institution