

Name: _____ Date: _____

The Outsiders

- | | |
|--|-----------------|
| 1. stepping back successively bottom to top | A. brawn |
| 2. a small piece of coal, wood as a dying fire | B. subside |
| 3. to remain, continue, stay | C. racking |
| 4. a quality or state of being indifference | D. elite |
| 5. very great area or extent | E. sullenly |
| 6. showing or expressing contempt | F. exploit |
| 7. stubbornly tenacious | G. abide |
| 8. to occur again | H. apprehension |
| 9. participle of clothe | I. recar |
| 10. strong | J. vast |
| 11. a feeling of anticipation of anxiety | K. radiate |
| 12. to avoid or escape by speed | L. dogged |
| 13. a useful and desirable thing or quality | M. ember |
| 14. not to be completely understood | N. unfathomable |
| 15. characterized by longing | O. aloofness |
| 16. legally responsible | P. premonition |
| 17. a heroic act | Q. liable |
| 18. persons of high class | R. contemptuous |
| 19. showing unbelief | S. wistfully |
| 20. the act of understanding | T. asset |
| 21. to sink to a low or lower level | U. leery |
| 22. showing ill humor by a gloomy silence | V. sagely |
| 23. a person famed for wisdom | W. elude |
| 24. as of light or heat | X. clad |
| 25. wary | Y. incredulous |