

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

adaptation and extinction

Across

3. humans and natural disasters have destroyed an organisms habitat
6. physical traits of the body that can help organisms survive and reproduce
7. when all that individuals of a particular species die off
8. when the species looks like the other species in order to deceive the predator
9. patterns of action that help organisms survive and reproduce

10. humans introduce a new species to an environment. if there is no consumer to keep that new species in check it can out compete the native species and take over

Down

1. the fewer number of of individuals left in a species the less genetic variations
2. inherited traits that increase the change of survival and reproduction of an organism
4. coloring that blends with the environment
5. climate change happens so suddenly that a species does not have any members with genetic traits that allow survival