

bees words

Across

- 1. to assume or act the character of
- 3. a consecrated place; a place of worship, refuge, and/or protection
- 7. greatness of size or extent
- 10. to summon by or as if by invocation or incantation
- 15. to include within a particular scope; to be made up of
- 17. a drunken revel
- 18. difficult to find

- 19. having or producing the feeling of being burned or being yelled at
 - 20. overstepping bounds; taking liberties
- Down
- 2. the quality of being definite, accurate
 - 4. having an irritable disposition
 - 5. to excite and often trouble the mind or feelings of
 - 6. to contract into folds or wrinkles
 - 8. the house provided by a church for its pastor

- 9. to cut off the head of; to make ineffective
- 11. to constrain by physical, moral, or legal force; to put in one's debt by a favor or service
- 12. to expand and contract rhythmically
- 13. a turned-up tuft of hair that resists control
- 14. not disturbed or disquieted
- 16. marked by contemptuous boldness

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|-----------|-------------|---------|
| comprise | impersonate | precision | obliged | ornery |
| agitate | carouse | magnitude | decapitate | cowlick |
| pulsate | presumptuous | elusive | unperturbed | scalded |
| parsonage | conjure | sanctuary | pucker | brazen |