

Name: _____

Date: _____

convenience

Across

5. is the act of making financial transactions on a mobile device
7. is an individually secured container—usually a metal box—that stays in the safe or vault
8. A service a bank provides to customers giving each a statement containing information on all accounts with the bank, not only one at a time.
10. plastic card that can be used instead of cash

Down

1. are bank statements and check copies which are delivered to you in an electronic, paperless file.

2. the ability of a bank customer to deposit a check into a bank account from anywhere
3. service provided by a bank or other financial institution, that enables customers to perform over the telephone
4. r provides the bank and company with debit information and bills are withdrawn automatically out of a checking account
6. a plastic card that can be used to access your funds at ANY ATM.
9. Access to accounts from the internet