

dementia

Across

2. a collection of signs and symptoms

6. independence in ones' actions

7. which lobe controls personality

8. wandering has a -----

13. the most common form of irreversible dementia

15. loss of ability to understand the spoken or written word

16. the manner in which a person walks

17. a perspective towards a person or thing

18. non living

19. which lobe controls vision

20. the act of collecting and hiding items

Down

1. which lobe controls pain

3. two latin words for "away" and "mind"

4. the sensations of experiences that aren't really true

5. chemicals that transmit nervous system impulses

9. which lobe controls formation of long term memory

10. a danger or risk

11. as a person ages the brain-----in size

12. mood is sad: may feel hopeless

14. an attitude toward aging