

economic cross word

Across

- 2. favored by democrats.
- 5. Less money in the economy.
- 8. Another government agency.
- 9. Policies that try to decrease the output of the economy. Fiscal Year, The government makes a new budget. It may add to it through supplementary budgets from time to time.
- 10. Policies that try to increase the output of the economy.

Down

- 1. The government makes a new budget. It may add to it through supplementary budgets from time to time.
- 3. Government decisions on spending and taxation that are intended to improve ornamentation the economy.
- 4. written document that indicate amount of money the gov. expects to get in a certain year and authorizes amount of money so they can spend that year.
- 6. People have less money to spend.
- 7. favored by Republicans.

Word Bank

- | | | |
|-------------------|-------------------|-------------------------|
| Fiscal Year | Federal Reserve | Contractionary Policies |
| Fiscal policy | Federal Budget | Expansionary policies |
| Decrease Spending | Increase Spending | Increase Taxes |
| Decrease Taxes | | |