

education trunk

Across

3. a warm-blooded animal, with hair that more or less covers its body and that feeds its young milk produced by mammary glands
 6. an animal that kills and eats other animals
 7. a female bighorn sheep
 9. the use of natural resources in a way that assures their continuing availability to future generations

10. a permanent hard, bony growth projecting from the head of certain animals
 11. an animal that is killed and eaten by other animals
 12. the condition of having been removed from existence; gone forever.

Down

1. the application of scientific knowledge and technical skills to conserve, protect, enhance, or extend the value of the wildlife resource and its habitat

2. a hard, bony, branched growth projecting from the head of certain mammals, which falls off every year
 4. one which is in danger of extinction throughout all or a significant portion of its range.
 5. an animal that eats only plants
 8. a male bighorn sheep