

figurative language

Across

- 2. a word that imitates the natural sound of a thing
- 6. (an example of _____) A red rose can mean romance or love.
- 9. two opposite ideas are joined to create an effect
- 12. an exaggeration of an idea
- 13. (example of _____) The buzzing bee flew at my ear.

- 14. a comparison of two unlike things using like or as
- 15. the use of an object, idea, or gesture to represent something else

Down

- 1. a comparison of two unlike things without using like or as
- 3. an idea or an animal is given human traits
- 4. (an example of _____) seriously funny

- 5. (example of _____) The fire swallowed the entire forest!
- 7. (example of _____) Her cheeks are red like a rose.
- 8. (example of _____) Your suitcase weighs a ton!
- 10. (an example of _____) A dove represents peace.
- 11. (example of _____) Her voice is music to me ears.

Word Bank

- |              |           |                 |           |                 |
|--------------|-----------|-----------------|-----------|-----------------|
| symbolism    | hyperbole | metaphor        | simile    | hyperbole       |
| onomatopoeia | simile    | personification | symbolism | personification |
| metaphor     | oxymoron  | symbolism       | oxymoron  | onomatopoeia    |