

frankenstein vocab

Across

- 3. to repay
4. characterized by rancor or anger
5. to make abnormally lean or thin by a gradual wasting away of flesh
12. a small amount or share
14. arrogant assertion of opinions as truths
16. alluring or practicing evil
17. to cut apart an animal or plant to show or examine the position, structure, and relation of the parts
20. the act of comfort

23. very hungry

24. enounce

25. to change from one nature, substance, form, or condition into another

Down

- 1. the act or ceremony of burial
2. characterized by or expressing goodwill or kindly feelings
6. something that threatens to cause evil, harm, injury, etc
7. the state or character of being intense ill will 8. disgrace
9. puzzled or complicated

10. a state of final spiritual ruin

11. to renounce or surrender

13. the act of lamenting or expressing grief

15. the quality of being kind

18. great warmth of feeling

19. to continue to cause keen irritation or bitter resentment within the mind

21. as much or as good as necessary for some requirement or purpose

22. to impregnate or inspire, as with feelings, opinions