

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

gilded age

Across

1. radicals who oppose all government
6. a philosophy that extended Darwin's concept to human society.
8. a shop where employees work long hours for low wages and under poor working conditions
9. complete control of a product or service
10. a system in which the person who works the fastest and makes the most pieces makes the most money

Down

2. the amount of goods and services created in a given period of time
3. a negative term for a worker that is called in to replace striking laborers
4. a market structure that is dominated by only a few profitable firms
5. licenses that give the inventor the exclusive right to make, use, or sell an invention for a set period of time
7. an economic and political philosophy that favors public instead of private control of the means of production