

humanist approach

Across

4. humanist thinkers in the early renaissance
 9. this family donated a library to the city of Florence
 10. the name of the scholars in the renaissance
 13. this roman lawyer thought that public service was everyones duty
 14. painted the birth of Venus
 15. books and texts were written in this form
 19. this sculpturer was also a famous painter
 21. learning this language was becoming important again in the renaissance
 22. the name of the painter of the school of athens

23. he created the painting Mona Lisa
 24. the name of the organization that created the code of long life and wisdom

Down

1. the ideas and values of the ancient times are..... in the renaissance
 2. francesco petrarch religion
 3. the architect Fillipa Brunelleschi designed this church
 5. she was the first professional women writer
 6. this is very important in every child's life in the renaissance
 7. comes from the word civis which means citizen
 8. humanist thought that individualism is important so is open and..mind

11. this humanist/writer wrote about a merchant who spends his time studying greek and latin language
 12. this book the De-Architectura was rediscovered by this author
 16. just like the middle ages this played a important part in the renaissance
 17. Petrarch wrote above poem to this women
 18. people who paid artist to produce work
 20. famous humanist/scholar who edited the new greek version of the new testament