

Name: _____

Date: _____

inter VOCAB

Across

5. the break between parts of a play, opera, or concert
7. the worldwide computer system that allows communication and information sharing among people
8. between the states
9. to break into a conversation between people
10. involving people playing among themselves; an exchange of activity or information between people or people and a computer Diane likes to be interactive in class

Down

1. between people (usually describing social activities) Julia would much rather engage in interpersonal activities than do lone activities.
2. between or among the nations of the world
3. a person who helps translate the languages between different people
4. to throw a remark into a conversation between two or more people
6. to get in between two people when it is not your problem or issue