

Name: _____

Date: _____

interpersonal communications crossword

Across

- 5. The process by which you become aware of objects through your senses.
- 7. The lifestyle of a group; their values, beliefs, artifacts, ways of behaving, and ways of communicating.
- 9. Nonverbal behaviors that, when engaged in, either in private or in public, serve some kind of need and occur in their entirety.
- 10. Nonverbal behaviors that accompany and literally illustrate verbal messages.

Down

- 1. An active process of receiving aural stimuli consisting of five stages: receiving, understanding, remembering, evaluating, and responding.
- 2. The medium through which signals are sent.
- 3. Any signal or combination of signals that serves as a stimulus for a receiver.
- 4. Nonverbal behaviors that regulate, monitor, or control the communications of another person.
- 6. Nonverbal behaviors that directly translate words or phrases.
- 8. Anything that interferes with receiving a message as the source intended to be received.