

ize/yz/ise - to make

Across

2. to turn over, (ex. a boat in the water)

6. to make something by combining things (ex. music)

8. to change in order to make corrections or improve

9. to perform without being prepared

10. to study something by looking at its' features

11. to watch over or direct

12. to become aware of, to understand clearly all of a sudden

Down

1. to finish a project or to end something

3. to worship or greatly admire someone or something

4. to settle a difference where both sides give up something

5. to plan, invent or create

7. the loss of the ability to move or feel a body part