

Name: _____ Date: _____

law ed

1. a test used by courts to restrict speech when the government thought that the speech would create an immediate danger or serious crime
 2. a court order prohibiting public reporting on a case currently before the court
 3. any effort to censor a publication before it goes press
 4. of or relating to the criminal corrections process
 5. any place where the First amendment expression rights are traditionally exercised
 6. part of the first amendment to the U.S constitution that prohibits government from establishing a church or preferring one religion over another
 7. part of the first amendment to the U.S constitution that protects individuals right to worship as they choose
 8. a private school supported and controlled by a religious organization
 9. a citizen's right to fair access to the courts and to fair treatment when government action affects a person's interests
 10. used by courts to protect basic freedoms by making sure that government does not violate fundamental right without good reason
 11. rights or privileges that are not listed specifically
 12. the denial of freedom of speech or freedom of press
 13. too broad or general.
 14. a spoken expression about a person that is false and damages that person's reputation
 15. a method used by courts to determine whether to restrict or punish a expression based on its potential to cause immediate unlawful behavior
- A. Penological
 - B. Unenumerated rights
 - C. Censorship
 - D. Free exercise clause
 - E. Gag order
 - F. Procedural due process
 - G. Public forums
 - H. Slander
 - I. Substantive due process
 - J. Clear and present danger test
 - K. Incitement test
 - L. Overinclusive
 - M. Prior restraint
 - N. Establishment clause
 - O. Parochial schools