

literally terms crossword

Across

7. a state or condition of mental uncertainty or excitement

11. the process by which the personality of a fictitious character is revealed through the characters speech, actions, appearance

14. a character in fiction whose personality, background, motives, and other features are fully delineated by the author

16. engage in activity for enjoyment and recreate rather than a serious or practical purpose

17. to prevent the success of

18. a fictitious prose narrative of book length, typically representing character and action with some degree of realism

19. the person who opposed the main character

21. a literary or dramatic character who undergoes little or no inner change

22. a temporary state of mind or feeling

24. a story with a fully developed theme but significantly shorter and less elaborate than a novel

25. the process by which the personality of a fictitious character is revealed by the use of descriptive adjectives

Down

1. an event or scene so inserted

2. : a Christian festival, observed on January 6, commemorating the manifestation of Christ to the gentiles in the persons of the Magi; Twelfth-day

3. the use of symbols to represent ideas or qualities

4. a literary or dramatic character who undergoes an important inner change

5. an indication of something that will happen in the future

6. the place or type of surroundings where something is positioned or where an event takes place

8. a piece of writing that partakes of the nature of both speech and song

9. a particular attitude or way of considering a matter

10. the main character

12. the expression of one's meaning by using language that normally signifies the opposite, typically for humorous or emphatic effect

13. an easily remembered character

15. a modulation of the voice expressing a particular feeling or mood

20. to come into collision or disagreement

23. the storyline