

literary terms

Across

1. Resemblance of sound between syllables of nearby words
3. A short story, typically with animals as characters, conveying a moral
5. A poem of 14 lines using ten syllables per line
11. The use of symbols to represent ideas or qualities
13. A figure of speech in which a word or phrase is applied to an object or action that is not literal
14. Use of images used to tell a story, poem or passage
15. A joke exploiting different meanings of a word

16. When two things are described as similar to each other
17. A verse in a poem, paragraph or a group of sentences
19. The repetition of the same letter or sound at the beginning of closely connected words
20. A verbal error in which a speaker accidentally transposes the initial sounds or letters of two or more words

Down

2. An imitation of the style of a particular writer, artist, or genre with deliberate exaggeration for comic effect
4. Punctuation mark indicating possession

6. A section or speech at the end of a book or play that serves as a comment or conclusion
7. A group of words that all sound the same
8. A mild or indirect word or expression used to substitute a word considered too harsh
9. Exaggerated statements that are not meant to be taken literally
10. A sequence of propositions or ideas in order of increasing importance, force or effectiveness
12. A figure of speech in which apparently contradictory terms appear in conjunction
18. The subject of a talk, piece of writing, exhibition or topic