

literary terms crossword

Across

2. a Greek term meaning "ladder," is that particular point in a narrative at which the conflict or tension hits the highest point.
7. a person who actively opposes or is hostile to someone or something; an adversary:
9. someone who isn't directly involved in the action tells you everything that goes down.
17. achieve permanent acceptance or recognition for
18. Rising action in a plot is a series of relevant incidents that create suspense, interest, and tension in a narrative
19. was a German novelist and playwright
20. where the narrator tells the story to another character using the word 'you.'
22. where the narrator tells the story to another character using the word 'you.'
23. unfolding or solution of a complicated issue in a story.

24. a central character in a story, movie, drama who lacks conventional heroic attributes

25. the unfolding or solution of a complicated issue in a story.

Down

1. a person who narrates something, especially a character who recounts the events of a novel or narrative poem
3. the surroundings or environment of anything
4. the narrator only knows the thoughts and feelings of one character.
5. which the narrator knows the thoughts and feelings of all of the characters in the story
6. psychological struggle within the mind of a literary or dramatic character, the resolution of which creates the plot's suspense

8. in a plot is an event or a point that arrives at the beginning of a play, story book, or a film

10. the act of expounding, setting forth, or explaining

11. where the story is narrated by one character at a time.

12. struggle between a literary or dramatic character and an outside force such as nature or another character, which drives the dramatic action of the plot

13. where the story is narrated by one character at a time.

14. action occurs right after the climax, when the main problem of the story resolves.

15. a person or other being in a story

16. the leading character or one of the major characters in a drama, movie, novel, or other fictional text

21. often in an epilogue.