

media word study 2

Across

2. dislike, hostility, or unjust behaviour deriving from preconceived and unfounded opinions.

5. the presentation of stories in a way that is intended to provoke public interest or excitement, at the expense of accuracy.

12. a person who is blamed for the wrongdoings, mistakes, or faults of others, especially for reasons of expediency.

13. viewing or treating (a person or group of people) as intrinsically different from and alien to oneself.

14. a particular attitude towards or way of regarding something; a point of view

15. the action of deliberately arousing public fear or alarm about a particular issue.

16. the process of depriving a person or group of positive human qualities.

Down

1. a person who informs on a person or organization regarded as engaging in an unlawful or immoral activity.

3. information, especially of a biased or misleading nature, used to promote a political cause or point of view.

4. the portrayal of something as wicked and threatening.

6. a fact or belief that is accepted as true

7. the action of describing or regarding someone or something as worthy of disgrace or great disapproval

8. a general statement or concept obtained by inference from specific cases.

9. a thing aimed at or sought; a goal

10. based on or influenced by personal feelings, tastes, or opinions

11. assign to a category, especially inaccurately or restrictively