

plumbers

Across

5. the substance that settles on the bottom of a tank, also known as lime
8. a connection made with compression fittings
9. the amount of horsepower being consumed by a pump as measured on a dynamometer
10. the threads on the outside of a connection
11. the result of atmospheric pressure added to gauge pressure

Down

1. a device on a gas appliance that shuts off the gas supply to prevent a hazardous situation
2. precisely vertical
3. completely sealed, especially against the escape or entry of air
4. unsuitable for drinking
6. a tank designed to absorb excess pressure due to thermal expansion
7. paste applied to copper pipes and fittings before soldering to help the fusion process and prevent oxidation

Word Bank

Flux

Non-potable

Absolute pressure

Male Hose Thread

Expansion tank

Plumb

BHP

Sediment

Hermetic

Slip joint

Safety shutoff valve