

political science

Across

3. ballot vote in which citizens select a party's nominee for the general election
 4. government by the people
 6. plan proposed by larger states
 7. local meeting in which party members select a party's nominee for the general election
 13. type of scrutiny involving sex or gender equality
 14. political freedom
 15. groups of like minded people who try to influence the government
 16. being tried twice for the same crime. double _____
 18. "by fact"
 19. the first 10 amendments. the bill of _____
 20. written false statements that damage a person's reputation

21. the division of power across the local, state, and national levels of government
 24. citizens' views on politics and government actions. _____ opinion
 25. type of scrutiny involving suspect classification
 27. type of test used by supreme court to determine whether a practice violates the first amendment's establishment clause
 28. the process that determines what government does
 29. group of people surveyed in order to gauge the whole population's opinion
 30. the system for implementing decisions made through the political process

Down

1. form of federalism in which states compete to attract businesses and jobs through the policies they attract
 2. a form of government in which power is held by a single person, or monarch

5. politician running for reelection to the office they currently hold
 8. the idea under which some people have tried to rationalize discriminatory policies
 9. spoken false statements that damage a person's reputation
 10. 3 part test used by the supreme court to determine obscenity
 11. type of speech that uses nonverbal expression
 12. group of people whom a researcher or pollster wants to study
 17. government agency that regulates radio stations. federal communications _____
 22. "by law"
 23. change in size of party coalitions or in nature of issues that divide the parties
 26. powers supported by the constitution that are not expressly stated in it