

positions and STNA terms

Across

- 3. a chronic disease of the central nervous system
- 5. pertains to muscles and skeleton
- 7. when the head is elevated 80-90 degrees
- 9. Occupational safety and health administration
- 11. when the person lies on one side or the other
- 15. vomitus
- 17. condition of the skin
- 18. recording what someone eats and drinks
- 19. assisting residents to be aware of time, place and person
- 20. type of isolation

- 22. a loss of function or ability
- 23. Pertaining to the eardrum
- 24. any lesion cause by unreleased pressure
- 25. becoming restless and agitated in the late afternoon, evening or night

Down

- 1. when the head of bed is elevated 15-30 degrees
- 2. measures used instead of physical or chemical restraint
- 4. the distortion of a body by 2 oppositely directed parallel forces(can cause skin damage)
- 6. the act of taking what belongs to someone else and using it illegally

- 8. A puncture proof container designed for needles
- 10. resident who shows no interest in activities
- 12. inability to control bladder or bowels
- 13. paralysis of one side of the body
- 14. person assigned by law as the legal advocate for resident
- 16. Mucous secretion from the lungs, trachea, and bronchi expelled through the mouth
- 21. recording what comes out of someones body

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|---------------------|----------|------------------|--------------------|-----------------------|
| misappropriation | airborne | tympanic | multiple sclerosis | LowFowler |
| reality orientation | OHSA | Lateral position | Sharps container | impairment |
| hemiplegia | Sputum | highfowler | shearing | withdrawn resident |
| ombudsman | emesis | sundowning | incontinence | restrain alternatives |
| Output | Intake | musculoskeletal | skin integrity | pressure ulcer |