

psychodynamic approach

Across

3. this part of the mind is ruled by pleasure seeking
 7. embodies the child's sense of right and wrong as well as his or her ideal self
 9. pushing painful memories deep down into our conscious mind
 12. the impulsive part of our personality present at birth
 13. dream thoughts are compressed into brief images
 14. the real meaning of a dream
 15. 1. a symbol replaces an action, person or idea

16. when two individuals evoke feelings of impatience, fury or despair in each other

17. the idea that personality and behaviour are determined more by psychological factors

18. this part of the mind cannot be directly accessed but expressed through dreams

Down

1. a thought is translated into visual images

2. when group members are able to respond to the experiences of others without being overly defensive

4. the unconscious mind collects all the different images and ties them together to form a logical story

5. theory that explains human behaviour as interaction between innate drives

6. undesirable thoughts are attributed to someone else

8. this part of the mind is logical

10. the conscious, rational part of the mind governed by the reality principle

11. what scan was used to highlight regions of the brain?