

Name: _____ Date: _____

reproductive terminology continued

- |  |                   |
|--|-------------------|
| 1. having more than one estrous period per year                          | A. queen          |
| 2. fold of skin for carrying young on abdomen of femal marsupial         | B. rooster        |
| 3. condition in which offspring develop in the female uterus             | C. polyestrous    |
| 4. protective sheath covering the penis                                  | D. prepuce        |
| 5. female chicken younger than 1 yr                                      | E. ram            |
| 6. young dog/ seal   | F. sow            |
| 7. mature, entire female cat used for breeding                           | G. shoat          |
| 8. male, entire, sexually mature sheep (about six month of age or older) | H. vixen          |
| 9. male chicken  | I. squab          |
| 10. pig under 1 yr old   | J. sire           |
| 11. male parent of any quadruped, especially a horse                     | K. stud           |
| 12. female pig   | L. stallion       |
| 13. to remove the ovaries & uterus; to neuter a female animal            | M. stag           |
| 14. fledgling pigeon   | N. whelp (verb)   |
| 15. male deer  | O. tom            |
| 16. male horse   | P. viviparous     |
| 17. neutered bull  | Q. pregnancy      |
| 18. male horse used for breeding   | R. spay           |
| 19. male cat or turkey   | S. pup            |
| 20. vessel connecting the fetus to the placenta                          | T. steer          |
| 21. female passage for copulation & birthing                             | U. umbilical cord |
| 22. giving birth to live young developed in the uterus                   | V. whelp (noun)   |
| 23. female fox   | W. pouch          |
| 24. neutered ram/ billy goat   | X. vagina         |
| 25. young of a dog   | Y. pullet         |

26. giving birth to, especially of dogs

Z. wether