

rhetical devices

Across

- 2. reference to a piece of literature or scripture indirectly
- 4. an appeal to ethics; to gain your audience trust
- 6. a juxtaposition of strongly contrasting words, images, or ideas
- 7. repeated grammatical structure
- 8. two contradicting words or terms appearing together

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-------------|------------|--------|-------------|--------------------|
| Oxymoron | sources | Llogos | Antithesis | retorical question |
| Allusion | Ethos | | Exclamation | Pathos |
| Parallelism | Repetition | | | |

- 9. restating an idea using the same word

Down

- 1. questions asked for effect, not to get information.
- 3. relies on facts from credible
- 5. an emotional statement, often indicated in texts by an exclamation mark
- 10. an emotional argument which evokes sympathy or anger