

Name: _____

Date: _____

rights and freedoms

Across

3. a program of protest and civil disobedience undertaken by African Americans and their supporters in the 1950s and 1960s to overcome racist policies that denied them their civil rights

6. that which comes or belongs to one by reason of birth.

7. a term to describe land that the state owns and the government administers. It is land owned by the public and not by private companies or individuals.

9. a policy that forces people to conform to the attitudes, customs and beliefs of the majority of the population

10. Governments tolerating Indigenous culture and beliefs and allowing coexistence with white cultures.

Down

1. a government policy from c.1869 to 1937 that segregated Aboriginal people from Australian society and became the means of controlling their lives

2. the policy of separating racial groups so that whites could retain power over African Americans

4. the possession of something, in this case land

5. Latin term meaning 'the land of no-one'. According to eighteenth-century law, a land that had no owner could be lawfully taken over by the people of another land

8. the headquarters of those who represent their nation within a foreign country