

stems crossword

Across

2. genus of terrestrial or lithophytic ferns having pinnatifid fronds; chiefly of tropical America; a deficiency of red blood cells; a lack of vitality

3. the addition of an ingredient for the purpose of enrichment (as the addition of alcohol to wine or the addition of vitamins to food); defensive structure consisting of walls or mounds built around a stronghold to strengthen it; the art or science of strengthening defenses

4. a state of lawlessness and disorder (usually resulting from a failure of government)

6. influenced or controlled by a powerful force such as a strong emotion; having or showing excessive or compulsive concern with something

12. a meeting devoted to a particular activity; a meeting for execution of a group's functions; a meeting of spiritualists; the time during which a school holds classes

13. the perception of pleasant arrangements of musical notes; a succession of notes forming a distinctive sequence

15. the quality of moving freely

16. a literary work based on the imagination and not necessarily on fact; a deliberately false or improbable account

17. lost in thought; showing preoccupation; not in a specified place physically or mentally; verb go away or leave

18. an infective disease caused by sporozoan parasites that are transmitted through the bite of an infected Anopheles mosquito; marked by paroxysms of chills and fever

20. express or state clearly; speak, pronounce, or utter in a certain way

22. relating to or resembling lymphatic glands or lymphoid tissue; noun a collection of lymphatic tissue in the throat behind the uvula (on the posterior wall and roof of the nasopharynx)

23. speak out against; give away information about somebody; announce the termination of, as of treaties; to accuse or condemn or openly or formally or brand as disgraceful

Down

1. a morbid fear of men

5. an extravagant comedy in which action is more salient than characterization

7. not capable of movement or of being moved; securely fixed in place

8. bearing in abundance especially offspring; intellectually productive

9. growing in air; in or belonging to the air or operating (for or by means of aircraft or elevated cables) in the air; characterized by lightness and insubstantiality; as palpable or intangible as air; noun a pass to a receiver downfield from the passer; an electrical device that sends or receives radio or television signals

10. give up, such as power, as of monarchs and emperors, or duties and obligations

11. depending on free oxygen or air; based on or using the principles of aerobics; enhancing respiratory and circulatory efficiency

14. much greater than the normal; not normal; not typical or usual or regular or conforming to a norm; departing from the normal in e.g. intelligence and development

19. an automaton that resembles a human being

21. (biochemistry) purine base found in DNA and RNA; pairs with thymine in DNA and with uracil in RNA