

tagalog linkers and markers

Across

1. ng follows a word ending in a
 5. ten
 10. marks the beneficiary of the action
 11. marks personal names that are not the focus of the sentence
 16. marks location
 17. this linker has three forms, ng, g and itself
 18. one
 21. nine
 22. is used to indicate that the name of the person is the focus

24. the word that follows this is not the focus of the sentence
 25. marker used to point out the focus of the sentence
 26. red

Down

2. takes the place of sa when the noun being marked is the name of persons
 3. person, place or thing
 4. mark the unfocused actors
 6. a direct object is th _____ of the action
 7. ma changes a noun to an

8. marks nouns as subject, object, location, direction etc
 9. is used to indicate that the persons are the focus of the sentence
 12. orange
 13. marks direction
 14. marks the name of a person
 15. indicates possession
 19. is the marker that deals with direction
 20. yellow
 23. this marker is always placed directly before the word to be pluralized