

Name: _____

Date: _____

two of a kind vocabulary

Across

2. the act of "double dealing"; lying to 2 different individuals or parties

4. to turn/switch from one direction or path to another

5. describes something disconnected from a secondary part; lacking cohesion; confusing

6. a part of speech used to connect words, clauses and sentences or as a transition between them

8. the atmosphere, mood or character of a particular place that surrounds one on both (all) sides

9. describes something uncertain or vague; having 2+ interpretations or meanings

10. describes the state of having 2 conflicting emotions or ideas at once

Down

1. to connect/be adjacent to a second part, esp. in terms of location or land

3. a reply or response, esp. one that is sharp in nature (as in anger or cleverness)

7. a connecting point between 2 things; a significant point in time, esp. in decision making