

Name: _____ Date: _____

veterinary terminology terms continued

1. chronic disorder of the heart, common in dogs
 2. introduction of a catheter into body part
 3. agent that produces blood clotting
 4. acute abdominal pain; common in horses
 5. state of deep unconsciousness
 6. folded cloth/ pad applied so as to press on a body part
 7. infrequent, difficult passage of dry feces
 8. uncontrolled, violent muscle contractions
 9. anti-inflammatory hormone
 10. cosmetic surgical removal of large portion of a dog's ear
 11. inflammation of the bladder
 12. diabetic condition caused by pituitary disorder
 13. diabetic condition caused by an inadequate supply of insulin
 14. agent that destroys infection
 15. anesthetic that chemically dissociates (separates out) perceptions of pain
 16. cosmetic surgical removal of a portion of a dog's tail
 17. difficulty breathing
 18. regurgitation (vomiting)
 19. originating from within the organism
 20. placement of a tube through the trachea intubation
 21. injection of liquid through the anus to empty the intestine
 22. infection of the lungs found in specific kinds of animals
 23. part of bone where growth occurs; often a breakage site in young animals
 24. merciful, painless killing of an injured or ill animal
- A. dyspnea
 - B. disinfectant
 - C. exogenous
 - D. cortisone
 - E. cropping
 - F. coagulant
 - G. colic
 - H. docking
 - I. catheterization
 - J. enzootic pneumonia
 - K. coma
 - L. diabetes insipidus
 - M. convulsion
 - N. epiphysis
 - O. compress
 - P. external
 - Q. emesis
 - R. endotracheal
 - S. enema
 - T. cardiomyopathy
 - U. diabetes mellitus
 - V. euthanasia
 - W. endogenous
 - X. constipation

25. originating from the outside the organism

Y. dissociative agent

26. occurring on the outside

Z. cystitis