

Name: _____

Date: _____

vocab choice

Across

- 2. To refuse to give in to; to withstand
- 3. To fill with joy or delight. A place where you enter, or the act of entering. Note: These two words are spelled the same but are pronounced differently
- 7. Firmly or solidly built; determined
- 8. To become larger; to add to
- 9. To direct one's word to 1. The place where you can find a person or thing 2. A speech

Down

- 1. Doubt about someone's honesty. To be suspicious of; to not believe
- 4. To stay alive or continue to exist; to keep going on; to live longer than
- 5. Wanting very much; excited. I was so eager to open my presents, I ran right into the back of the couch
- 6. !. A warning that one may do harm
- 2. Something that can do harm
- 10. Being the only one of its kind; belonging to only one person or group